A Session on Planning Your Research and Evaluation Project

Presented by Mr. Michael Bentley

This 2-hour session provides an introduction to planning a research and/or evaluation project, with an emphasis on program logic as a tool for developing a proposal. Projects may address topics in: clinical practice; public health and health promotion; health service delivery models and issues; health policies and systems.

The session is intended predominantly for primary health care practitioners who are interested in applying for one of the PHCRED RCBI Program’s 2011 Seeding Grants.

(For further information on these grants, see: www.phcred.utas.edu.au).
