

'Getting it out there'PRELIMINARY PROGRAM (29/10/09)*9.30am to 10.00am REGISTRATION, COFFEE IN FOYER*Opening Session Chair : Professor Mark Nelson

10.00 Welcome to Country

10.10 Opening remarks

Professor Mark Nelson,
Professor and Chair, Discipline of General Practice,
Professorial Research Fellow and Senior Fellow, Menzies
Research Institute,
University of Tasmania, Co-Director PHCREDSpecial Guest Speaker

10.20 Getting it out there

Associate Professor Ellen McIntyre
Manager, Primary Health Care Research and Information Service (PHCRIS)CONCURRENT SESSIONS 11.10 – 12.20 p.m.

Session 1	Chair tba	Session 2	Chair tba
TITLE	PRESENTER	TITLE	PRESENTER
Training in Evaluation: Does it change practice?	Dorothy McCartney	Nurses' perceptions of safety climate and its relationship with reporting medication error – is Qualitative Comparative Analysis (QCA) a potential method of data analysis?	Debra Carnes
Arts and Health – What do we know about evaluation?	Leigh Tesch	Screening for physical inactivity in general practice – do GPs have the tools to do it?	Tania Winzenberg
Engaging local communities in data collection of primary care service: A spatial analysis case study in the Meander Valley, Tasmania.	Lawrie Donaldson	Rural GPs and Resilience: A qualitative study	Patricia Aitken

12.20 – 1:00LUNCH BREAK

CONCURRENT SESSIONS 1.00 – 2.10 p.m.

Session 3	Chair tba	Session 4	Chair tba
TITLE	PRESENTER	TITLE	PRESENTER
Smoke Free work site evaluation	Gretchen Long	Sound Based Intervention in Children Aged 3-5 with Sensory Defensiveness: A Pilot Study	Victoria Hickman
How cardiac patients who smoke perceive and make use of smoking cessation advise and support from their GPs	Emily Hansen	Mapping the experience of engagement: Refugee women in a new community	Nevanka Alempijevic
Anecdotes and Evidence: Developing equitable ATODs services to support Aboriginal Community efforts to address and respond to alcohol, tobacco and other drugs use issues	Cheryl Mundy	Decision making capacity by people with chronic kidney disease in the preservation of kidney health	Sandra Campbell

CONCURRENT SESSIONS 2.15 – 3.25 p.m.

Session 5	Chair tba	Session 6	Chair tba
TITLE	PRESENTER	TITLE	PRESENTER
'Allow me to reach my full potential.' Self-determination and its applicability to people living with disability	Jane Wardlaw	A review of parenting programs in Southern Tasmania – Preliminary findings	Nicola Beamish
The impact of rural socio-cultural context on the dementia experience	Peter Orpin	Deliberate Self-Harm in Rural and Urban Adolescents	Alison Archer
Cancer patient journeys in rural Tasmania	Rob Rickard		TBA

3.30 - 4.00 p.m. Wrap-up and farewell

Dr Erica Bell,
A/Co-Director, Deputy Director
University Department of Rural Health
University of Tasmania, Co-Director PHCRED

This Symposium was funded by the Department of Health and Ageing